

University of Montana

ScholarWorks at University of Montana

University of Montana News Releases, 1928,
1956-present

University Relations

5-20-1977

University of Montana events Monday, May 23-Sunday, May 29

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases>

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

University of Montana–Missoula. Office of University Relations, "University of Montana events Monday, May 23-Sunday, May 29" (1977). University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present. 28361. <https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases/28361>

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.

EVENTS

UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

Information Services 406/243-2522

Monday, May 23-Sunday, May 29

MONDAY, MAY 23

Columnist James Reston of the New York Times will present a lecture entitled "President Carter's New Approach to Foreign Policy" at the eighth Mansfield lecture program at 8 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom. The lecture is open to the public without charge.

TUESDAY, MAY 24

Marcel Ophul's documentary film, "The Sorrow and the Pity," will be shown from 6 to 10 p.m. in Women's Center 215. The film is about German occupation of France during World War II. The movie is free and open to the public.

The Montana Woodwind Quintet and the Montana String Quartet will present an evening of chamber music at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. Performing will be Mary Jean Simpson, flute; George Riordan, oboe; William Manning, clarinet; Edwin Rosenkranz, bassoon; Karen Clarke and Erika Doran, violins; Bernard McWilliams, viola; Florence Reynolds, violoncello, and Allison Negus, violoncello.

The Missoula Women's Artists Association will have an open house at 8 p.m. in the Women's Resource Center in the University Center. Members will be present to discuss their work and the association.

Art exhibits by master's degree candidates are on display in the Gallery of Visual Arts in Turner Hall. Ceramics, metals and drawings by Pat Knadjian and paintings and drawings by Rick Cliff are on display.

THURSDAY, MAY 26

The final lecture of the series "Power, Politics and the Environment" will be at 8 p.m. in the University Center Ballroom. Panel members for the discussion, entitled "Energy Policy: What is the Role and Responsibility of Government," will be Lt. Gov. Ted Schwinden, Rick Applegate of the Center for Public Interest, George O'Connor, former president of Montana Power, and Tom Power, UM economics professor.

An open house sponsored by the National Center for Career Education, Inc. will be from 1 to 4:30 p.m. in rooms 360 I-J in the University Center. Staff members will be available to answer questions and demonstrate services of the Center.

-more-

JOB OPENINGS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

The University is an equal opportunity employer. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

The School of Fine Arts, drama/dance department, has a vacancy beginning September 1977, for an experienced teacher of acting to serve as head of the Actor Training Program. Additional experience in voice or movement is desired. Applicants should have strong training and experience in acting and stage movement, dance or voice. College teaching experience or proven ability and an M.F.A. or Ph.D. are preferred. Rank is assistant professor or possibly associate professor, and salary is open. Letters, complete resumes, and credentials and/or recent letters of reference should be sent immediately to James Kriley, chairman of the drama/dance department.

The drama/dance department also has an opening for an experienced designer with strong theater and/or teaching experience and strong interest and ability in scenic design. An M.F.A. or Ph. D. is preferred. Rank is assistant professor or possibly associate professor, and salary is open. Letters, complete resumes and credentials and/or recent letters of reference should be sent immediately to James Kriley, chairman of the department.

The education school is advertising for an assistant reading/LD supervisor for a part-time position for summer school. A master's degree in education with a reading or LD specialist endorsement is required. Teaching experience is necessary. Salary is $600. Letters of application and resumes should be sent to Mike Jakupcak at the education school before June 3.

The education school has the following positions available. Applications, which are due by June 23, a vita and three letters of recommendation should be sent to the dean of the school. Please specify the position/s for which you are applying.

--Assistant dean/associate professor. The specialty area in education is open. Applicants must have an earned doctorate, recent public school experience and experience in higher education. Administrative experience in higher education is desired.

--Counseling and guidance/associate professor. Required are a strong specialty in counselor education, an earned doctorate and recent experience in public school counseling.

--Reading education/assistant professor specializing in developmental reading. Required are strength in diagnosis and remediation, an earned doctorate and recent public school experience.

--Educational psychology/assistant professor specializing in learning and growth and development. Required are an earned doctorate and recent public school experience.

--Elementary education/assistant professor specializing in language arts and early childhood education with some emphasis in reading. Required are an earned doctorate and recent public school experience.

The Montana State University theatre arts department is seeking a part-time instructor to teach from Sept. 1, 1977 to March 17, 1978. An M.A. or M.F.A. is required. Applicants must be qualified to teach basic and intermediate acting, stage makeup, introduction to theater and directing. The position also includes advising and miscellaneous administration responsibilities as assigned by the department. Applications should be sent to Bruce Jacobsen, head of the Department of Theater Arts at MSU, Bozeman, Mont. 59715. MSU is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.